THE BEST THING I HAVE TO GIVE

Once there was a man that married a lady who made him very happy.

Just when he thought that he had everything that he needed in his life, one day he found out that they were going to have a daughter.

He was the first person to hold her in his arms. He said "Lord, make her healthy" And He did.

As he looked at that pretty face, He said "Lord, make her like her mother" And He did.

She was loving, giving and kind.

But then he realized "I'm getting left out here." So he said "Lord, make her more like me" And He did.

She was creative, a quick learner, got along with everybody and could climb a tree like a monkey.

Do you realize what you're getting here?

But at the same time, she could be a little stubborn so he said "Lord that's enough of that, make her more like You"

And he did.

He gave her a fantastic heart and the desire to make people happy.

And she does.

But something was missing. So he said "Lord, make her happy"

And she met you.

See that look on her face? I never saw it until she met you.

I'm grateful for that. The man I'm talking about is me.

Today, I'm giving you the best thing that I have to give.

I just wanted you to know, before I do that, how hard her mom, God and I have worked to get her ready.

Don't mess it up.
